

St. Margaret of Scotland Catholic Church

Liturgical Ministers' Schedule April, May, & June 2010

March 26, 2010

Dear Liturgical Ministers,

You all serve in various liturgical capacities and all of you are important to the hospitality this community wants to convey to all who worship. I am always grateful for your generosity in sharing time and service. As we enter into the spring and summer months most of you will be juggling lots of schedules and events and sometimes you will not be able to honor the commitment to minister at an assigned mass. While this is understandable, may I remind each of you to try and get a replacement for your assigned ministry early on. All too often our mass coordinators are caught with filling slots at the last minute. This may have at least two downsides: over using people who would like to come to church and simply pray with the congregation without being pressed into service; and sometimes having to use people who are not as properly dressed to minister as our guidelines direct.

Each ministry has a job description that all of you should be familiar. Common to all ministries is the expectation that ministers should check in with the mass coordinator at least 15 minutes before the start of Mass; be properly groomed and modestly dressed in attire befitting someone who wishes to convey not only hospitality but also supreme respect for the Eucharistic Celebration. One should not call undue attention to oneself by wearing attire with distracting logos and while jeans are not preferred, if one should wear them they should be without tears and stains. Short-shorts are never acceptable for ministers or the general congregation. I will be addressing this concern to the parish in the bulletin in the near future.

We are always in need of more ministers and training is provided for new people. If you know someone who would make a good lector or Eucharistic minister, the next diocesan training will be held on June 5th at Presentation Parish. It will be a day long training session. Anyone interested should contact the office before May 28th.

With deepest gratitude,

Handwritten signature of Rev. Robert H. Stewart
